1. A delegate of the Union Revolucionaria in the Alianza Nacional is reported to have stated that propaganda and agitation against the Apristas should be started in the provinces, where it would have more chance for success.
2. An officer of the Alianza reportedly favors making electoral agreements with the Communists. In his opinion it will be impossible to defeat the APRA Party in the senatorial elections for Lima without the aid of the Communists, who control about 50,000 votes in the country.
3. It is reported that cartridges and second-hand pistols are being sold at various establishments of the Alianza.
